

OUR OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Ark Pres Safety Belts Ltd. is committed to protecting its employees against losses resulting from workplace accidents and occupational illnesses.

The prevention of accidents and losses is the direct and shared responsibility of management and employees. To this end,

1. To ensure that all legal working conditions are met and to provide the safest and healthiest working environment at our workplaces.
2. To eliminate the risks posed by incidents that threaten life and property, such as accidents, illness, injury and fire.
3. For production and support departments to operate within the framework of this policy in the design, operation and maintenance of all facilities and equipment.
4. To ensure that all employees fully comply with current health and safety regulations, rules, procedures and legal obligations.
5. Employees and management will make every effort to comply with this policy, adhere to the requirements of the management system, and continuously improve this system.

EMPLOYER'S REPRESENTATIVE

REV 4
ISG 42-PT-01
22.09.2025